Suggest Bilbo Be Barred

Recommend Such Action When he Attempts to Take Senate Oath of Office

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—House Republican picked Rep. Joe Martin of Massachusetts as speaker today a short time after Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas agreed reluctantly to serve as leader of the Democratic house minority.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The Republican steering committee recommended today that Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) be barred at the door of the Senate when he attempts to take the oath for a new term tomorrow.

Chairman Taft (Ohio) said the committee's recommendation would be laid before the full Republican membership of the senate at a meeting this afternoon.

Bilbo has been accused by an investigating committee of misusing his office and breaking the law in his relations with war contractors.

Taft indicated the possibility of an agreement with the Democratic leadership under which a threatened filibuster, which would delay organization of the senate, would be avoided.

The Ohioan told a news conference that the possibility of setting a date shortly after the president's State of the Union message is received by congress Monday for full discussion of the Bilbo case had been talked over with Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader.

No Agreement With Barkley
Taft said no agreement had been reached with Barkley yet but indicated the Republicans hope to come to an understanding with the Democrats on this point before tomorrow.

Taft told reporters a resolution might be offered to deny Bilbo his seat temporarily, with the understanding that this would have no bearing on the senate's final decision.

Previously, senators often have been seated "without prejudice" while their cases are discussed. The barring of Bilbo at the door would prevent the Mississippi, a lusty filibusterer, from taking any part in senate discussion of the charges against him. Presumably, however, he would be represented by some other senator, acting as his unofficial counsel.

The steering committee's recommendation was expected to be accepted by the full Republican conference later in the day.

To Study Minority Report
At the same time, Senators Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Bridges (R-NH), scheduled an afternoon news conference to discuss a projected minority report of a special committee which investigated in Mississippi charges that Bilbo acted to prevent Negroes from voting in the primary where he was renominated.

The committee previously voted three to two, with Bridges and Hickenlooper dissenting, to clear Bilbo of these charges.

Taft, in answer to reporters questions, said that the move to bar Bilbo "will be open to debate and so subject to filibuster but I don't know of anybody planning to filibuster."

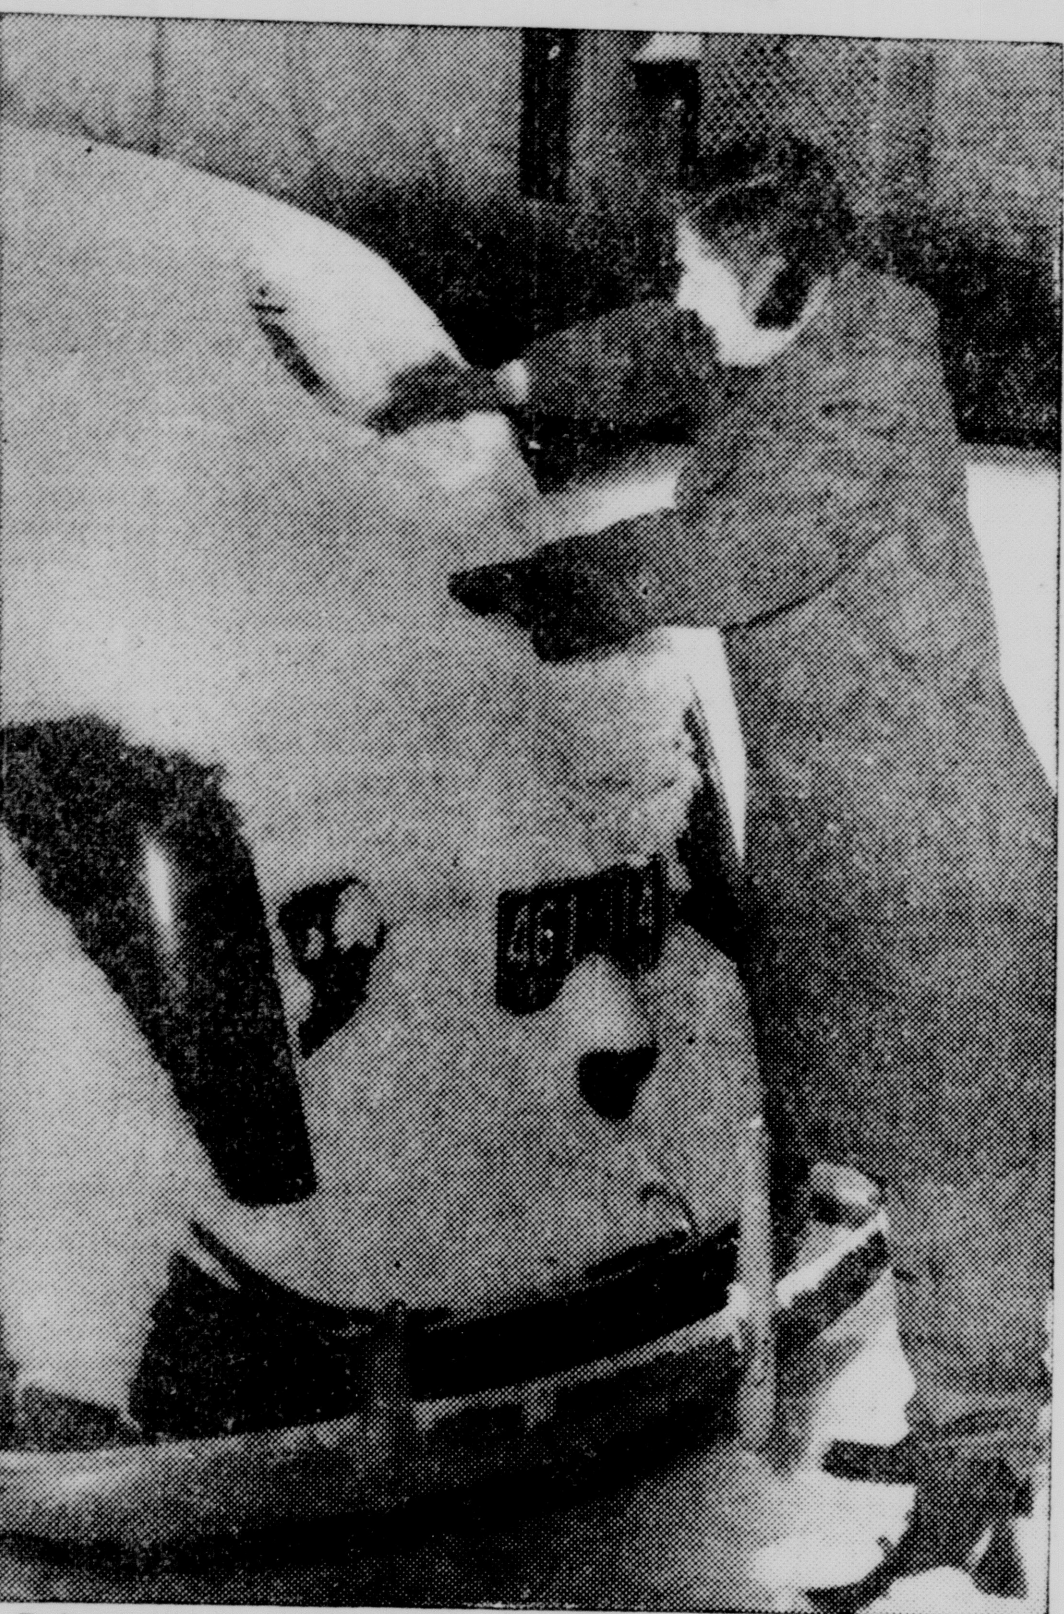

"The report is non-partisan," Taft said referring to the report of the Senate War Investigating Committee condemning Bilbo's relations with war contractors. "It was signed by two Democrats."

Taft said the Bilbo case involves a "lot of legal questions" that will take some time to debate.

Report Makes Charge
A report signed by a bi-partisan majority of the Senate War Investigating Committee declared the evidence of its investigation clearly indicates that Senator Bilbo improperly used his high office as United States senator for his personal gain in his dealings with war contractors.

Committee Chairman Kilgore (D-W. Va.) asserted that "in view of the scope of the findings" the whole record is being laid before the attorney general, whose agents were previously disclosed to be studying the Bilbo transactions.

Had Suffered Delusions of Persecutions

Little Rock Police Had Been Afraid of Chief for Weeks

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Detective Chief O. N. Martin, 51, was suffering "delusions of persecution" when he shot Detective Lieut. O. F. (Jack) Deubler, 31, and then committed suicide, Coroner Howard A. Dishongh reported today.

Martin and Deubler's bodies were found in a sparsely settled suburban section by a rabbit hunter yesterday morning slightly more than an hour after they had left police headquarters together.

Dr. Dishongh, who recorded the shooting as a murder and suicide, said his investigation showed: Martin, veteran peace officer frequently featured in detective story magazines, had been suffering from "delusions of persecution" for several months.

Mentally Sick
"He had decided despite reassurances to the contrary that some of his fellow officers and other public officials were trying to embarrass him even to the extent of having him indicted. He thought the grand jury was trying to link him with gambling operations which he had vigorously opposed. The grand jury foreman had told him he was mistaken. He had made statements he was going to kill five different men. Deubler was carrying information to the grand jury. He was mentally sick and every man on his force has been scared of him for weeks."

Involved In Black Market
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The house military committee today approved a staff report stating that a "vast majority" of American military personnel in Europe seemed to be "involved one way or another" in black market activities.

The original report was made public by a committee member several weeks ago.

Deaths From Asphyxiation
ALGIERS, Jan. 2.—(AP)—A verdict of accidental death by coal gas asphyxiation was returned today after a post-mortem in the deaths of George Hayden of Asbury Park, N. J., and his fiancée, Mrs. Virginia Mull McCauley of Great Bend, Kas.

The verdict was announced by the United States Consulate General which said both consulate officials and the management of the luncheon company for which Hayden worked had accepted the findings.

Open Roads for Emergencies

The county owns two snow plows, stated F. A. Griessen, county surveyor today, which are available for opening roads in the county where an emergency exists such as illness, a funeral, or something important.

Persons requiring such service, he said, may contact members of the county court or John Prall, road foreman.

The ploughs, he said, are busy today opening mail routes and roads traveled by school buses.

Chinese Carry Demands to U. S. Embassy

Request U. S. Troops be Moved From China

By Harold K. Mills
NANKING, Jan. 2.—(AP)—One thousand Chinese students today carried their demands for ouster of American servicemen from China to the U. S. embassy and Chiang Kai-Shek's headquarters.

They said they would march to the home of General Marshall, U. S. peace envoy to China, and to the Chinese foreign office tomorrow with their demands.

Chanting "Americans go home," and ignoring a ministry of education order banning such parades, the students carried petitions to Chiang's headquarters and the U. S. embassy.

The petitions demanded withdrawal of U. S. troops from China, and requested that the United Nations security council order U. S. troops moved, and that full details of the alleged rape of a Peiping girl by two U. S. marines be published.

Proceeding With Case
U. S. Ambassador Stuart was absent, but Minister Walton Butterworth received the parades' chairmen and the petition. He gave the students Stuart's reply.

"U. S. Marine authorities are proceeding with the case as rapidly as the demands of justice and a democratic trial will permit."

In Pieping, Marine officials are preparing to put the charges before a court martial. They said, however, the Chinese police have not cooperated in the investigation; that one leatherneck denies any relations with the girl and the other insisted he had relations with her on a professional basis.

Motor Vehicle 1947 Licenses Now on Sale

Explanation of Driver's License Given by Reporter

The 1947 automobile, truck, motorcycle and trailer licenses went on sale in Missouri today and here in Sedalia at the Bryant Motor Company, the new drivers' licenses under the new law can likewise be obtained at this time. Ben P. Robinson, deputy motor vehicle commissioner under the State Motor Vehicle Unit of the Department of Revenue, said he anticipated one of his largest years in sales of the various licenses.

Much confusion has arisen over the driver's license under the new law, which states the license is issued from a driver's birthday for two years. Many have licenses which show an expiration date of June 30, 1946, but under an order of Gov. Phil Donnelly, a one-year grace has been granted to give everyone an opportunity to get his or her driver's license on the birth date. Regardless whether a driver has obtained a license on the birth date this year, the license, according to W. H. Statler, supervisor of the Motor Vehicle Unit is still good until July 1, 1947.

Birthday to Banning
However, any license obtained is dated on the birth date which falls between June 30, 1946 and July 1, 1947 and is good for two years from that birth date. An example given was that of a person having a birthday anniversary on August 24. The license is dated back to that date in 1946 and the license will expire as of August 24, 1948. A birth date which falls on June 27, the license will expire on June 27, 1949.

Any license which was issued and the 2-year deadline was up before June 30, 1946, becomes void and those not having a new license can be arrested and fined.

To save confusion, drivers are requested to get their licenses as soon as possible, instead of waiting until the last minute, which might result in failure to get them on the "deadline" date and if stopped by a state patrolman, sheriff or police officer, might result in arrest and fine.

Steady Demand
Mr. Robinson in discussing the car licenses said the demand for them is steady at present time and motorcycle owners are likewise requested to get the license early and not wait for a "deadline" date and last minute rush. The local office has not been notified as to when a "deadline" date will be set.

This morning, Mr. Statler, in a telephone conversation with a Democrat reporter, stated a car tag "deadline" date had been set tentatively on February 15. However, this date can be changed and may be set up to February 1. "I wouldn't suggest to a car owner to wait for a 'deadline' date," Mr. Statler said, "because anything can happen, and the sooner the licenses are obtained the better."

1946 Big Year
Mr. Robinson in discussing the Sedalia office stated that since he has been deputy motor vehicle commissioner the past four years, 1946 was one of the largest years he has had. An overall total of licenses sold, which included passenger cars, trucks, trailers and motorcycle licenses was 14,034.

A breakdown on the total shows 9,500 passenger car licenses; 2,478 truck, 2,017 trailer and 89 motorcycle licenses sold through the local bureau.

The Pettis county series at the local bureau for passenger cars started this year at 210-001; the trucks at 82,001 an trailers 22-001.

At the local bureau, Miss Kathryn Viebrock, deputy to Mr. Robinson and Miss Vinita Fischer, will handle the license rush.

The 1947 license has a white background with black letters. It is just the reverse from the 1946 license color combination.

Bomb Could Be Stronger
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Former Assistant Secretary of War John J. McCloy says a tenfold increase in the power of the atom bomb is possible within the next decade—and that new methods could produce one a thousand times stronger.

Favors Truman-Farley Ticket
TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Harry H. Wood, Kansas Democratic leader, said today that it was his opinion that a Truman-Farley ticket would be the strongest combination the Democrats could offer in the next national campaign.

Car Skids; Kills Child
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Old Man Winter and the infant New Year arrived here simultaneously. The first measurable snow, totaling over an inch, fell yesterday and last night, glazing the streets and slowing transportation facilities. A seven-year-old boy was killed when he was struck by a skidding automobile. The mercury dropped to 10 above. All plane flights at Lambert-St. Louis field were canceled and bus service to the south and east was disrupted.

More snow and continued cold was the forecast for today and tonight.

Byrnes "Man of the Year"
NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Time, the weekly news magazine, today selected Secretary of State James F. Byrnes as "Man of the Year" of 1946.

In a discussion of Byrnes, Time said: "Byrnes, patient, purposeful tinkerer with the details of the Satellite treaties, he managed to get over to the Russians and the world that the United States had planted the weight of its power in the path of the Russian advance."

Charge Violation Of Election Laws

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The special house campaign investigating committee today turned over to the justice department evidence it said indicated that 60 CIO unions and locals and 12 corporations violated the corrupt practices act in the recent congressional elections.

Chairman Priest (D-Tenn.) told a reporter the committee has recommended that the department take whatever action it believes necessary against the unions and the corporations, all in New York.

The committee also gave to the attorney general evidence which Priest said shows that the Communist party of the United States violated the law by failing to file a report of receipts and expenditures as required of political parties.

Snow General Over State, Warn Drivers

Waverly Reports Four Inches, Heaviest Recorded

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Snow fell generally over Missouri today, leaving a white blanket ranging up to four inches.

Freezing rain preceded the snow in southern and southeastern Missouri, leaving a traffic hazard on highways in that area. The Missouri State Highway Patrol office at Lee's Summit warned drivers against attempting the ice covered slabs in the vicinity of Springfield and eastward.

The 11 a. m. forecast was for continuation of the snow tonight, ending in the northwest corner of the state by tomorrow morning. Temperatures, which ranged near 20 degrees over the northern and central part of the state this morning, were expected to fall generally to zero to five above in the north and 15 to 25 above in the south-east.

Light Rains Freeze
The season's first general storm covered all but southeastern Missouri with snow. There the situation was worsened as light rain froze on the pavements. Buses operating over highways 67 and 66 were canceling schedules. The highway patrol reported the routes "virtually impassable" because of ice.

In Jefferson City, from which bus lines radiate to all parts of the state, an agent said schedules probably would be cancelled by mid-afternoon.

Highway department snowplows and cinder trucks were out in force but road conditions weren't expected to return to normal before the week-end.

The snow was continuing throughout most of the state and best driving conditions were reported in northern Missouri where plows were cutting through up to four inches of the chilly blanket.

No Accidents
The highway patrol said there were no reports of accidents which could be attributed to the storm.

Waverly in Lafayette county reported four inches of snow, the heaviest recorded in the state. Amounts elsewhere ranged from one to three inches.

Division No. 1 of the State highway Department at St. Joseph reported from two to three inches in the northwestern part of the state, but highways open. Traffic was reported moving slowly at St. Joseph.

Snowfall reports from over the state included: Clinton, Kirksville and St. Joseph two inches; Kansas City, Springfield, West Plains, Columbia, Chillicothe one inch each.

The weather bureau reported the snow general over the entire middlewest with Abilene, Tex., recording seven inches of snow.

12 Officials Take Oath of Office Jan. 1

New Terms of Office But Few New Faces In the Court House

Twelve Pettis Countians, eleven Republicans and one Democrat, elected to office at the last November election, assumed duties of new terms on Wednesday, January 1, while the thirteenth, Miss Hazel Palmer, Republican County Collector of Revenue, signs her oath on March 1.

With the new year, one new office has been created and the abolishing of the Justice of the Peace and Constable duties have ended, under the new Missouri State Constitution. This office is that of County Magistrate, to which William M. Ilgenfritz was elected. Judge Ilgenfritz, like most of the elective officers, signed their oath of office on Tuesday evening, December 31, 1946, and assumed their duties the following day.

Also Judge Dimmitt Hoffman, judge of the Thirtieth Circuit, began his fifth six-year term in that office. Judge Hoffman began his first term as Circuit Judge on January 1, 1923. He will sign his oath, which is sent from Jefferson City.

Probate Judge
Judge J. E. Smith, of the Probate Court, begins his fifth four-year term. He took over the duties as Judge of the Probate Court for his first term on January 1, 1931.

Bryan Howe, Circuit Clerk, the only Democrat elected, began his fourth four-year term in this office. He was first elected in 1938 and took office on January 1, 1939.

John Ryan, County Recorder; Frank Wagner, County Treasurer; James Green, County Clerk, and Judge J. V. Kesterson, presiding Judge of the County Court, begin their second terms of four years each.

Leo J. Harned, prosecuting attorney, begins his fourth term, but this term is for but two years. He also served another term in 1937 and 1938.

Judge Edward Callis, judge of the Western district, County Court, begins his second term. The terms of Associate Judges are for but two years.

New County Judge
Judge Vernon Glenn, judge of the Eastern district, begins his first term of office.

Harvey Dow, State Representative, begins his second term of office. The term of Representative is for two years.

Louis F. Ritchie, appointed clerk of the Magistrate Court, began his service on Tuesday. This new position pays an annual salary of $1,800 a year. The Magistrate, W. M. Ilgenfritz, will draw an annual salary of $4,200.

Other deputies, secretaries and stenographers are: Roy Snyder, Court Stenographer; for Judge Hoffman; Miss Mildred Sutherland, deputy to Bryan Howe; Miss Juanita Young, deputy to Judge Smith; Lee Brandt and Miss Grace Farley, deputies to James Green; Mrs. Ruth Fimple, secretary to L. J. Harned; Miss Alma Boetcher and Mrs. James Atkinson, deputies to John Ryan.

The deputies to Miss Palmer are Carl F. Urban and Miss Elaine Chapman.

Woman Felt Her Life Was a Failure

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Mrs. Allie Mae Martin maintained a diary and in recent weeks, Deputy Sheriff Carl Hagan reported, indicated in succeeding entries that she felt her life was a failure.

She recorded her final notation on the last day of 1946.

On New Year's day—her 27th birthday anniversary—she died of a bullet wound in the head.

Coroner B. W. Tadlock listed the wound as self-inflicted.

Remorse, Ltd.
LONDON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—"What would your mother think?" That, said housekeeper Nora Clarke, five feet tall, was what she asked an armed burglar about to leave her employer's house with an armload of furs.

"He looked at me then and said something like, 'all right,' and put them down and left," Mrs. Clarke related to police.

The shame, however, police said, did not stop the thief from getting away with about $4,000 worth of other valuables.

Buried Blessing

Need to Build Better World

"Resolutions for 1947," was the subject of a talk by the Rev. J. W. Watts, pastor of the East Broadway Christian church, before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell Hotel today noon.

The speaker, who was introduced by Program Chairman Bert Hathaway, called upon the men of today to build upon the ashes of World War II a better world of unselfishness, brotherly love and faith. The need for it was never greater and the responsibility for its accomplishment rests with every individual to improve his community and nation both physically and spiritually.

Pinkney Miller, new club president, presided, John Joe McGrath presented members with cigars in honor of his new daughter.

Before adjourning the members arose and sang Auld Lang Syne.

Most Trains And Buses On Schedule

Delay in Travel Between Sedalia And Springfield

Snow flurries in Sedalia and the surrounding territory last night and today have not affected transportation as much as would be expected. Most of the trains and buses were on schedule today and although a number of them were a few minutes overdue, there were no serious delays.

However, some trouble was encountered between Sedalia and Springfield, according to the bus terminals. At the Union Bus Station, one bus out of Springfield, leaving there at 7 o'clock this morning and supposed to arrive here at 10:25, was still overdue at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

One ticket agent at a bus station stated that the roads south of the Lake of the Ozarks were reported to be almost impassable in some places.

One Bus Line Uncertain
The Missouri Pacific Trailways Bus Dept officials did not send the usual morning bus to Springfield and were uncertain as to whether they would attempt to put one through this afternoon.

Ticket agents of the Missouri Pacific and Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroads report that trains of both lines are running on schedule fairly well.

Talk Farley for Vice President

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The New York Daily News said today that a movement to boom James A. Farley, former postmaster general, as President Truman's vice presidential running mate in 1948 "will be openly launched at the Jefferson day dinner here, sometime in April."

"At the same time, a group of prominent progressive business men will get behind Farley," the News said, adding:

"Among them, it is expected, will be Bernard Baruch and C. H. Silver, woolen executive and vice president of the Alfred E. Smith memorial foundation."

(Commenting on the story, Baruch told the Associated Press: "I don't know a thing about it and I am not having anything to do with politics." Farley declined comment.)

The fire companies made two runs this afternoon, the first at 12:03 o'clock to the Sedalia Cleaners, 413 South Laming avenue, the second at 1:51 o'clock to the residence of Henry Waller, 2122 East Broadway.

A cleaning tumbler at the Cleaners company caught fire and caused about $300 damage. Several suits and pairs of pants were damaged in the fire. The loss is covered by insurance.

At the Waller residence a flue was burning out. No damage resulted.

'Drafted' Rayburn, Of Texas

As Democratic House Leader for 80th Congress Which Convenes Thursday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—Republican and Democratic leaders failed to agree on procedure today in a projected ouster move against Senator Bilbo (D-Miss.). Indications were that the controversy will go to a senate showdown fight tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—(AP)—House Democrats "drafted" Sam Rayburn of Texas today as their floor leader for the 80th Congress which convenes at noon tomorrow.

Rayburn was elected at a caucus attended by most of the 187 Democrats who will serve in the new Republican-dominated congress.

A party leader said the vote was unanimous.

With leadership difficulties virtually solved all around, labor legislation held the spotlight on the eve of the first Republican-dominated congressional session in 15 years.

John McCormack of Massachusetts nominated Rayburn, who got under way late yesterday. The Republicans said the Texan controlled the house, for minority leader.

Rayburn came to his feet with a speech in which he said he would accept.

Rayburn had indicated all along — up until last night — that he did not want the leadership job and would support McCormack for it. McCormack has been serving as Democratic leader in the house.

Pressure From Whole House
But the "draft Rayburn" drive got under way late yesterday. Party leaders said the Texan changed his mind to prevent a split in the new minority party. Some said direct "pressure" came from the White House too. Rayburn visited the White House late yesterday.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, who has been Republican floor leader, takes from Rayburn tomorrow the speaker's gavel.

Rep. Leo E. Allen, Illinois Republican slated to head the powerful house rules committee, predicted that a "large majority" of Democrats on both sides of Capitol Hill will support GOP-proposed legislation.

The Republicans were expected to hold back until President Truman outlines his views in his state-of-the-union message to a joint senate-house session next Monday.

However, party heads in the house leaned strongly toward a law which would prevent strikes in industries affecting the public health or welfare. Some of them advocate compulsory arbitration.

Caucuses Scheduled
Both parties scheduled caucuses today to select candidates for organization of the senate and the house when they convene tomorrow.

Most differences that had threatened to rupture harmonious intra-party relations already have been removed.

Barring an upset of the plans of their leaders, house Republicans expected to designate Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana as majority leader, Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts as speaker, and Rep. Leslie Arends of Illinois as party whip.

Martin and Arends were unopposed. Halleck had only nominal opposition since the withdrawal of Rep. Clarence J. Brown of Ohio from the race.

Position Strengthened
Halleck's position was further strengthened when Rep. Dirksen (R-Ill.) stepped out of the contest, leaving only Rep. Jenkins (R-Ohio) still opposing the Indiana.

"Pay strife, unseemly selfishness and the spirit of contest would not inspire confidence nor enlarge the common faith as we begin a new chapter in our national life," Dirksen said.

He added in a statement that "personal ambition must never give way to the country's need and to the obligation which our party now assumes, and hence I am withdrawing."

Martin, becoming the first Republican speaker of the house since Nicholas Longworth of Ohio wielded the gavel in 1931, succeeds Sam Rayburn of Texas.

Differences Ended
Leadership differences among house Democrats apparently were ended by a successful movement to "draft" Rayburn for the post of majority leader.

The Texan had insisted that when he relinquished the speaker's role he wished to play only the part of "elder statesman," leaving the floor leadership to Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts, now majority leader.

But Southerners, cold to McCormack, an ardent New Dealer, demanded that Rayburn accept the job in the interest of party harmony.

Japan Celebrates New Year's

TOKYO, Jan. 2.—(AP)—This was—and is—Japan's gayest New Year's in ten years and now the country's employers, especially newly arrived American housewives, are trying to round up their workers.

The American wives' introduction to Japan's Marathon holiday—extends from three to seven days, according to the individual's whim—came after the servants melted into New Year's Eve with a vague promise to return when the celebrating is ended.

Editor's Note: This is the third of 11 authoritative, understandable articles in NEA's ninth annual "Income Tax Primer." Prepared by NEA's recognized authority on income tax problems in consultation with Bureau of Internal Revenue experts, these articles show the wage earning taxpayer, in step-by-step fashion, how to make out his income tax returns.

By S. Burton Heath
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The principal source of income, for most who use these articles, is compensation for personal services. In Group A of the of the Taxable Income list that accompanied the first article, this includes everything except interest and dividends.

For income tax purposes your wage or salary is what you were paid before deductions for social security and income taxes, union dues or assessments, hospital or other insurance, saving bonds, pension or retirement, garnishments or anything else.

If you file your withholding Statement you can not deduct any expenses that you paid, without reimbursement, in earning your income. If you use Form 1040 you can deduct most such expenses as were necessary and customary.

Deductible business expenses fall into two arbitrary groups. One is those treated as expenses of traveling and living while away from home. These can be deducted from your compensation even if you use the Tax Table or the Standard Deduction. The others are considered as miscellaneous items and can be claimed only if you compute your own deductions. Both groups will be discussed in the fifth article.

Any interest that you receive from any source (except a few tax-free government bonds which not many taxpayers own) is taxable. You need not report interest due to you but not paid during the year; but if interest is made available to you, it is taxable even though you did not take physical possession of it. The interest on a bank account was "paid" to you even though you didn't take your passbook in to get it credited; the interest on bonds is paid even though you did not yet clip the coupons and present them for payment.

War Bonds

You can treat the interest on war bonds (including pre-war "defense" and post-war "savings" bonds) in either of two ways. Having selected one way, you must not change to the other without permission from your Internal Revenue Collector. You may either:

(a) Compute, for each bond each year, the increased value shown in the table on the bond, and report it as interest, or you may

(b) Ignore the interest until you sell the bonds; and as you sell each one, report for taxation the "pro-gain" made by cashing it for more than you paid.

Dividends

This year dividends are reported separately from interest. They do not include so-called dividends on mutual insurance premiums or from cooperatives except in rare instances where the co-op designates them as distribution of profits. They do include dividends on corporate stock.

If all of your 1946 income came from the above sources, and if the total from interest and dividends and wages not subjected to withholding tax did not exceed $100, and if your total income from all sources was not as much as $5,000, you have the right to file your Withholding Statement as an income tax return.

Otherwise you must use Form 1040.

In any event, the best way to begin preparations is to get some scratch paper. List, separately:

(a) Your (and your wife's) wages shown on Withholding Statements.

(b) Your (and your wife's) compensation for personal services as defined above, not shown on Withholding Statements.

(c) Your (and your wife's) taxable dividends.

(d) Your (and your wife's) interest income.

Add each group. If you find that you are entitled to file your Withholding Statement, either jointly or separately, and if you are sure that you do not have enough deductions to make such a course expensive, you are ready to go.

Ruml Resigns From Bank

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2—(P)—Beardsley Ruml has resigned as chairman of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, but will continue to serve on the bank's executive committee, the Federal Reserve Board announced Wednesday.

Ruml had served as chairman for nine years, an unusually long time, and officials here said he had asked to be relieved because he could not spare the time necessary from his business as board chairman of R. H. Macy and Company.

The position, like other Federal Reserve Bank posts of the kind, carries no compensation. A successor to Ruml will be named later. Deputy Chairman William I. Myers, Ithaca, N. Y., will be acting chairman meanwhile.

Another outgoing Chairman Simeon E. Leland of the Chicago Bank, Paul G. Hoffman of South Bend, Ind., president of the Studebaker Corporation, was appointed deputy chairman and will serve as acting chairman until a successor to Leland is named.

The Reserve Board also announced new 1947 appointees for the Federal Reserve Banks included:

Branch directors:

St. Louis bank—Little Rock Branch, R. E. Plunkett of Little Rock, president of the Plunkett-Jarrell Wholesale Grocer Company, and Memphis branch, Hugh M. Brinkley, Hughes, Ark., farmer.

Kansas City bank—Oklahoma City branch, Rufus Green, Duncan, Okla., rancher.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-Round

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2—First big test of a continued nonpartisan foreign policy will come over the vital question of whether U. S. Ambassador George Messersmith is licking the boots of Argentine dictator Peron.

Two Republican senators, hard hitting Brewster of Maine and vociferous Wherry of Nebraska are out to rake U. S. anti-Peron policy over the coals either in hearings before the senate foreign relations committee or before the full senate.

Meanwhile Ambassador Messersmith himself has been summoned from Buenos Aires for a review of his friendship policy with President Peron. Secretary of State Byrnes, hitherto busy with European affairs, will soon make the final decision as to whether we work with or against Peron. Upon the outcome of his off-the-record talks with Messersmith will depend the future course of U. S. policy in much of South America. For already Argentina is reaching out, somewhat like Hitler, to take over its weaker neighbors.

Twelve years ago, Messersmith, then U. S. minister to Austria, watched and warned of Hitler's tactics in Europe. Now, for some strange reason, Messersmith seems oblivious to similar dangers. Here are some of the confidential reports he has been sending from Buenos Aires.

Nazis in Argentina
1. Messersmith informed the state department that Hedy Lamarr's ex-husband, Fritz Mandl, the big Austrian munitions maker, was a swell guy and should be admitted to the USA a little later. He explained that Mandl should wait for fear the "irresponsible American press" might make it embarrassing if he entered the USA now.

2. Ludwig Freude, one of the top Germans in Argentina, was defended by Messersmith, despite the fact that the state department wanted him seized. Freude is known to have paid money on behalf of Hitler to subversive agents in Argentina, and if he were returned to the U. S. army in Germany, would have been shot. Peron was considering imprisonment for Freude, until Messersmith interceded and said the United States was not interested.

3. Messersmith sent a twenty-page report to the state department on New York Times correspondent Frank Kluckhohn, calling him irresponsible and unbalanced. He even intercepted some of Kluckhohn's stories critical of Messersmith and sent them to the state department with pointed comments. Later Kluckhohn was seized by the Argentine police and given a severe grilling.

4. The U. S. ambassador also sent a critical report to the state department on Virginia Previtt, writer on Latin American affairs, who had dared report on Fascist developments in Argentina.

Recently Senator Brewster of Maine visited Argentina, where he was entertained by Ambassador Messersmith and received by President Peron. Since then Brewster, who has had a healthy influence on domestic affairs, has been urging GOP colleagues in the senate to stage a full-scale senate review of U. S.-Argentine foreign policy with a view to increased friendship with Peron. He has also wanted Messersmith to testify before the senate.

Note — It is doubtful that new foreign relations chairman Vandenberg will fall for this. That is one reason why irrepressible Senator Wherry of Nebraska is considering an Argentine debate on the senate floor.

Airline Dynamite
The dynamite now exploding between Jack Frye, Trans-World Airlines, president, and Howard Hughes, its chief stockholder, has caused members of the civil aeronautics board to begin some careful probing of the aviation industry. Their probe indicates that things aren't going anywhere nearly as well as the airline balldoo indicates.

Among other things, six companies operated in the red during the first nine months of 1946—TWA, Colonial, Chicago and Southern, Northeastern, Pennsylvania-Central and Western. Furthermore, the airlines have over-ordered new planes to such an extent that they will never be able to use more than a fraction of the planes supposed to be delivered.

For instance, the present fleet of civil planes has a capacity of 15 billion seat miles annually. However, when the planes now on order are delivered, capacity will be 41 billion passenger seat miles.

This is in contrast to the fact that the planes now on hand are 100 per cent in excess of the passengers now carried. Result is many unpublicized cancellations. One of the most disquieting situations is the fact that TWA has placed large orders with Lockheed, and heavy cancellations would deal Lockheed a tough blow.

Meanwhile TWA, with some of the most lucrative routes in the country, operated with a $3,235,491 loss in the third quarter of 1946.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mabry, sons Doyle Ross, William, Ivan, and Anthony and daughter Luella, 306 West Twenty-second street, had as their guests New Year's day Mrs. Amelia Buckley, Mrs. Robert L. Mabry, Florence, Roberta, Sandra and David Mabry.

On either side of the centerpiece, which was in keeping with the season, were red candles in star holders.

A musical program of piano and vocal numbers was presented by Doyle Ross Mabry during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mawhorter, 1226 West Main street, had as their guests Christmas eve, their daughters and husbands Mr. and Mrs. George H. Meyer and daughter Karen Marie of Houston, Texas; and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Russell, Jr.; Mrs. Mawhorter's sister Mrs. Shirley Osborne, Kansas City and son John William "Buddy" Arnold of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Max Riecke of Spring Fork; Mr. and Mrs. Pete Drenas and Miss Roselea Marshall.

After the distribution of gifts from the tree, dinner was served. The lace covered table had as the centerpiece a silver sugar plum tree with red candles in crystal holders on either side.

This was Karen Marie's first Christmas and the first in four years for Mr. and Mrs. Meyers.

Friday, December 27, Mrs. Clifford Mawhorter, 1226 West Main street, entertained in honor of her granddaughter Karen Marie Meyer. Guests were Carol De Ann Chester, Sharon Ruth Bartlett and Donna Marie Schick.

Refreshments of ice cream and individual cakes were served.

The Park college Central Missouri group will enjoy a potluck supper Tuesday evening at 6:30 B. F. Melcher, 212 West Market, Warrensburg, 212 West Market.

All alumni and former students of Park college are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dial of Nelson entertained at their home December 22 the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. William Shay and family of Independence, Mr. and Mrs. Stella Dial, Ben Dial, Verla Corinne, all of Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dial and family, Tom Moon, Bessie Carpenter and Doris Carpenter of Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dial and family of Windsor were unable to attend.

Mrs. Stella Dial, 1201 Ingram avenue, entertained the following at a Christmas dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dial and son David of Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dial.

1946 after taking tax credits. And during the first nine months of 1946, TWA took a net loss of $4,846,000 after taking tax credits of $2,943,000. Despite this TWA has been ordering more planes than any other company.

These are some of the reasons why the civil aeronautics board has begun a thorough probe of the whole aviation set-up.

Capital Chaff
Admiral Randall Jacobs, wartime chief of navy personnel, retired November 1, 1946, three-quarters pay — $6,600. But by strange coincidence, Jacobs was recalled to active duty on the same day and made commandant of the naval home for old sailors on Gray's Ferry avenue, West Philadelphia, where he now gets a regular vice admiral's pay — $8,800 plus quarters and subsistence.

One thing that grips heroic European leaders of the underground is the way collaborationists are now welcomed to the USA. Rene de Chambrun, son-in-law of traitor Pierre Laval, is now applying for a passport, while Karol Sidor, one of Czechoslovakia's collaborationists, has already been granted one. . . . Backstage in the Republican national committee: Chairman Carroll Reece had planned a general shakeup of the GOP labor and campaign divisions, but the furor over the ousting of Miss Marion Martin has been too great. The rest of the shakeup has been postponed. . . . Tommy Corcoran, the ex-brain trust, now father of five bounding bairns, gave them — as Christmas presents — the things they had broken around the house. His elder boy got a pane of glass for a window he smashed. . . . On the same day Britain announced the withdrawal of its ambassador to Spain, the new Argentine ambassador, Pedro Radio, left for Spain. . . . One thing Republican male leaders didn't like about Marion Martin was a recent prediction by her that at least 200 women delegates would attend the next GOP national convention. According to some Republicans, a national convention is no place for too many women.

Merry-Go-Round
Stanley Hornbeck, now ambassador to the Netherlands, will soon resign. . . . Secretary of State Byrnes has sent a third note to Moscow asking the Russians to negotiate regarding the end of the lease. The other two notes to Moscow on lend-lease have not yet been answered. . . . Democratic Senators Murray of Montana, Pepper of Florida, Taylor of Idaho, O'Mahoney of Wyoming and Kilgore of West Virginia will call a conference in January of all organized labor to map a fight against anti-labor legislation. . . . Secretary Byrnes is considering sending an economic mission to Turkey to bolster the Turkish economy. . . . The American embassy in Madrid reports that the United Nations resolution against Franco has been a big help in the fight to unseat the Spanish dictator. The cable candidly points out that the only negative effect of the United Nations resolution resulted from the failure

Illinois Romps On UCLA., 45 to 14 In Rose Bowl Game

West All-Stars Defeat East-Other Bowl Games Results New Year's Day

By Bob Myers

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Illinois, with a dazzling display of strength that stopped everyone but a record-breaking UCLA half-back, belted the favored Bruins all over the Rose Bowl today and walked off with a stunning 45-14 victory in the 33rd edition of the Tournament of Roses.

In augmenting the big nine-Pacific Coast Conference five-year pact, with an amazed throng of more than 90,000 spectators packed into the big bowl under a cloudless sky, the supposedly weak-on-offense Illini thundered along from the first and were never behind or even threatened after they got going in the second quarter.

The one and only big thrill given supporters of previously unbeaten UCLA came late in the second quarter when little Al Hoisch, 143-pound mite, fielded a kickoff three yards back of his own goal and bolted back up the field through the Illini, racing on the full distance of the field for a touchdown. The run, the longest and the only one from a kickoff in Rose Bowl history, was listed as 103 yards.

The first half told the story. Coach Ray Eliot's so-called "little boys" outweighed from end to end, ripped the Bruin forwards to bits and the Illini backs, Buddy Young, Julie Rykovich, Paul Peterson, with Quarterback Perry Moss at the helm, poured through for 245 yards via land and air.

The UCLA's brilliant array of backs, aside from Hoisch and Quarterback Ernie Case, might as well have stayed in the dressing room. They couldn't whip the Illini ends and tackles, notably Alex Agase, Sam Zatkoff and Ike Owens.

West All-Stars Win
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—(AP)—The West All-Star team defeated the East, 13-9 today in the Shrine 21st annual New Year's football spectacle at Hezar stadium before 60,000 fans, in a game which was not decided until the fourth period when the West put together a 36-yard scoring drive from pass formation.

Georgia 20; NC 10
NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 1.—(AP)—The Georgia Bulldogs found their scoring power late today to overtake North Carolina's Tarheels and win the 13th Sugar Bowl football game, 20 to 10, in a dense fog.

Some 73,000 persons peered through the gloom, hoping to catch a glimpse of the expected scoring duel between Georgia's All-American Charlie Trippi and Carolina's freshman Charlie Justice.

But the duel never materialized, and the fancy halfback spent much of the afternoon buried under swarms of opposing linemen. In fact, it was the hard-charging Carolina line which dominated play until the final period, when Georgia pushed 80 yards to its last touchdown against the tiring Carolinians.

Rice Beats Vols 8 to 0
MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Rice Institute, of Houston, Tex., won a bitter defensive duel with Tennessee Volunteers of Knoxville, Tenn., 8 to 0 in the Orange Bowl here today in bright soda pop weather.

A capacity crowd of 38,000, sitting in their shirtsleeves and summer dresses, watched the Rice Owls pile up eight points in the first period and then hold Coach Bob Neyland's Tennesseans scoreless for the rest of the afternoon. Both teams substituted frequently, Rice using whole teams, in an attempt to beat the 80-degree heat.

Arkansas-Louisiana Scoreless
DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 1.—(AP)—The flint-ribbed Arkansas Razorbacks balked three drives inside their ten-yard line to gain a scoreless tie with the power-laden Louisiana State Tigers here today in the eleventh annual Cotton bowl classic.

Tech's highly-rated power of-

Of the six Tech touchdowns, four were set up by pass interceptions and another by a fumble. One was registered on a 63-yard drive.

Oklahoma 34; NC State 13

Edds Davis, 195-pound fullback from Muskogee, Okla., bulled through the center of the North Carolina State line to score three of the Sooners' touchdowns. Dave Wallace, placekick artist, booted the extra point after four tallies and scored one of the touchdowns himself.

Alamo Game Postponed
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 1.—(AP)—The New Year's day Alamo Bowl football game between Hardin-Simmons university and Denver university was postponed today until Saturday afternoon when police officials refused to permit fans to enter ice-covered Alamo stadium.

Roads leading to the stadium were covered by ice as the result of a two-day rain and sleet storm, making it almost impossible for motorists to reach the Bowl. Seats and ramps of the stadium itself were coated with ice and police officials declared it too dangerous to permit fans to enter the stadium.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The National Collegiate Baseball Tournament, discussed every time a couple of coaches got together the past years, is likely to become a reality if the west coast gets some support from other sections at the meeting that's been held here today. Southern California's Sam Barry, who started things rolling a few weeks ago, said the baseball conference is solidly behind the project. "School still will be in session, there shouldn't be any difficulty with arrangements and it will keep the boys playing baseball through the summer," Barry says. "The only question seems to be whether the other districts are ready to stage eliminations and send the winners west. . . . Barry even hopes to get some of the support from the basketball tournament to underwrite the venture. "We have about $38,000," he explains, "and we might as well take some of that to build up baseball. Otherwise it will just go to track or something else."

Shorts and Shells
Right guard on the Brigham Young U. basketball team that plays Long Island in the Garden tonight is Junior Child. . . . Evidently it isn't just Brigham that's young. . . . Stu Holcomb, Army cage coach, says Kentucky and Oregon as the best teams he's seen this season and adds: "Oregon is just as good as Kentucky, but in a different way." . . . Ray Dumont, the sandlot baseball tycoon, has been awarded a trophy by the Wichita, Kas., Advertising Club as the person who did the most during 1946 to win national recognition for his home town—not to mention recognition for Han Dumont. . . . Ken Smith, president of the baseball writers' association, is writing a book on baseball's Hall of Fame for spring publication.

The Eat's On
Cadet-Midshipman Paul Weiner of the Kings Point basketball team, passed up a trip home for the holidays to practice for the Mariners' game with George Washington University. When an officer found him practicing set shots in the gym and asked how come, Paul explained: "Gee, lieutenant, we have a tough schedule coming up and we're just got to win. Besides, if I went home, I know I'd eat myself right out of shape."

Food Expert To Address The Grocers

Woman Will Outline Prospects for The Coming Year

Lower prices, better supplies and keener competition are predicted for the food industry in 1947 by Mrs. Rose Marie Kiefer of Chicago, secretary-manager of the National Association of Retail Grocers, who will speak here in Sedalia on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Kiefer will address the annual grocers meeting sponsored by the Sedalia Independent Retail Grocers Association and to be attended by 250 retail grocers and members of the food industry of central Missouri. The meeting will be held at Hotel Bothwell starting at 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Kiefer

Mrs. Kiefer, a nationally known expert on the food field who has made speaking appearances from coast to coast during the past few months, will outline prospects for the coming year, stressing that retailers will find themselves going from a "seller's" to a "buyer's" market, with a very short time and hence will need to make every operating and merchandising improvement possible.

Speech Program Highlight
Her speech, entitled "What About Tomorrow?" will be the highlight of the program which will include the installation of newly elected officers of the Sedalia Independent Retail Grocers Association, buffet supper, entertainment, refreshments and dance. Newly elected officers are Wallace J. Bruns, president; Leonard Anderson, vice president and Howard Gwinn, treasurer; directors, Dick Gray, Billie Solon and Kenneth Middleton all of whom will be installed into office by Ellsworth Green, secretary of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce.

The evening's speaker is one of the food industry's most prominent authorities. She has testified frequently before congressional committees investigating the nation's food supply and has spoken before industry, business and consumer groups throughout the country.

Travels Extensively
To keep speaking engagements in nearly every state, she travels approximately 30,000 miles a year and in addition makes a number of radio appearances.

Rose Marie Kiefer is a member of the Food Industry Council, President Truman's Food Emergency council, the American Trade Association Executives and the board of directors of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. She also acted as instructor at the recent National Institute for Commercial and Trade Organization Executives held at Northwestern University under joint sponsorship of the university, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the American Trade Association Executives.

Joined in Kansas City
Mrs. Kiefer was appointed secretary-manager of the National Association of Retail Grocers in February 1939, after playing an important role in the organization for 16 years. She joined NARGUS when its headquarters was in Kansas City, moved with it to St. Paul and finally to Chicago when the national offices were established in that city.

She has been editor of the National Grocers Bulletin since 1936 and has also supervised arrangements for the annual conventions of NARGUS. She has been active in the development of the Independent Food Distributors Council as well as other activities affecting the welfare of the individual grocer.

All those connected with the food industry in Sedalia and surrounding trade territory are invited and urged to be present.

Teach Children to Choose Good Meals

By William A. O'Brien, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
Proper food selection should be taught to children at an early age, to make them aware of the necessity of it and its relationship to good health.
The nutritional education of the American people has developed enormously in the last five years, largely as a result of the war effort and of improved economic conditions.
Until they reach the age of 10 or 12, children have little opportunity to select their own food unless their parents are aware of the desirability of their learning to do so. The school lunch program has been an important element in directing the attention of parents and children to the importance of proper food selection.
Children should acquire early in life a willingness to accept pasteurized milk, the ordinary vegetables (cooked or raw), fruits, whole-grained cereals and breads, eggs and simple desserts. Children who are sweet-lovers usually eat an inadequate diet, for normal children seldom crave sweets.
The school day should start with a good breakfast consisting of pasteurized milk, tomato juice or a citrus fruit, an egg, and a whole-grain cereal or toast. Coffee has no place in the diet of children, for it tends to displace milk in the diet.
Make Lunch Nourishing
The school lunch should include pasteurized milk and a main dish of protein food, such as beans, eggs, macaroni or spaghetti made with cheese or meat. A thick meat soup is also a good main item, and it may contain some vegetable.
Whole grain bread should be used for at least one sandwich if the lunch is carried and the sandwich filler should be egg, cheese,

THE STORY: As Rose waits for the Daughters of the Old Dominion meeting, she daydreams about Rose Cameron. "Click to you, Miss Rose Cameron," he had said on their second accidental meeting in Lake's department store. Afterwards they sauntered down Main Street together, and Rick had bought Rose an ice-cream soda. And they had made plans to meet again at Lake's the next day. And Mamma and Mamma are ready at last and Basil calls to take them to his mother's house for the meeting. Basil has something to discuss.

XIII
RIDING beside Basil, listening to him, Miss Amy thought of her manifold beautiful miracles and wondered if there isn't such a thing as pushing your luck too far.
Basil had begun by asking whether this meeting of the Daughters of the Old Dominion wasn't chiefly for the purpose of electing Blakesville's delegate to the annual national convocation to be held next month in Washington. A rhetorical query; Miss Amy felt sure enough in saying yes. Wasn't it the custom, Basil then asked, that in the choosing of delegates, the Daughters everywhere tried to put their best foot forward, to make a favorable impression on the national body? Miss Amy murmured yes. And to that end, wasn't it traditional for a younger Daughter to be elected? "Oh, yes," Miss Amy said. And didn't all the other chapters in the United States send off from their midst some exceptionally charming young member? "They seem to," said Miss Amy tentatively. "I've seen the newspaper photographs. Yes."
"Then why," Basil demanded, "is Blakesville's delegate always Bessie Pomeroy, who's 30 if she's a day, ugly as a mud fence, with buck teeth and the underslung figure of a Bartlett pear?"
Miss Amy didn't know; she really didn't; but she gave the meat, fowl, or peanut butter. Jelly and jam sandwiches or those made of spreads of little nutritive value are not recommended for children.
The noonday lunch, whether carried or eaten at school, should contain vegetables and fruits.
Ice cream and fruit, not cake or cookies, are the best all-around desserts for growing children.

then the chairman of the nominating committee had risen to report.
One name only, Bessie Pomeroy's; and a definite tension in the room, the president lifting her gavel. If there were no further nominations—
"Madam President!"
The chair recognized Mrs. Ruth Earle.
"I move the nomination of Miss Rose Cameron as our delegate to the national convocation in May."
Well... Gasps, a sort of lull, and two quick seconds, almost simultaneous, so that the president had to choose between them. Miss Rose Cameron's nomination had been moved and seconded.
"Are we ready for the vote?"
Slips of paper and pencils were circulated, the tension heightened, heads bent.
"I shall vote for Bessie," Rose murmured.
"Oh, my dear!" Miss Amy whispered, through stiff lips. "Oh, no!"
Sidney glowered at Rose. "Don't be a sap," she croaked.
The pencils scratched, the slips were collected, the clerks retired to tabulate the votes. Anxiety congealed Miss Amy's blood; she would surely have perished, had she not caught Mrs. Earle's eye across the room. Mrs. Earle was smiling, mouthing something. Miss Amy thought she was saying in pantomime: "It's all over but the shouting."
All over? Yes, the clerks had finished their tabulating.
"Miss Rose Cameron has been elected—"
Miss Amy heard that, but her eyes were so blurred with tears, she could see nothing at all...
The meeting adjourned to the dining room for refreshments of salad and sandwiches, sherbet and sponge cake and coffee.
"Mamma!"
"Yes, Rose?" Miss Amy stood up, trembling.
"I don't want to go to Washington, Mamma. I want to stay here."
The protest went unregistered. People were surging forward, shaking Miss Amy's hand; her face was blissful.
So Rose said nothing more...

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Hunters Injured In Auto-Train Collision

WARRENSBURG, Mo., Jan. 2. —(P)—Two hunters were injured, one critically, in a collision between their automobile and a Missouri Pacific passenger train here Wednesday.

Paul Hardings, 42, proprietor of the Hardings Feed Store, here, suffered a brain concussion and was taken to the Warrensburg clinic.

Walter Hulse, 38, employee of Hardings and owner of the car, suffered head injuries and shock. The men had just left Hardings' home to take advantage of the last day of the bird-hunting season.

The word matinee comes from the French "matin" or morning, but most such performances are given in the afternoon.

Say Teacher In Confession

T. A. Graves Held In Walker Bank Holdup Attempt

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 2.—(P)—A Green Ridge school teacher, Thomas Arthur Graves, has signed a written confession in the attempted holdup of the Farmers Bank at Walker, Mo., Monday, according to H. Clinton Lindley, Vernon county prosecutor, Nevada, Mo.

Graves is held in the Vernon county jail.

Graves, in his statement, said that his job as instructor of music at the school did not net him sufficient money to meet his expenses. He is married and has a seven-week-old son.

Medical examination revealed shotgun pellets in Graves' back and he had been identified by H. H. Cherry, cashier at the bank, as the would-be-robber, Lindley said.

The young teacher had two bullet wounds in his back when picked up by state highway patrolmen and Vernon county authorities, Captain George B. Kahler of the highway patrol said.

No charges had been placed against the youth late today.

Last Monday a young man entered the Walker bank and pointed a gun at Cherry ordering him to "hand over your money." When Cherry dived into the vault and grabbed his shotgun, the bandit fled, escaping in a 1936 Ford sedan, after shots had been fired at him.

There But Short Time

Superintendent Keith Davis, of the Green Ridge schools, informs the Democrat-Capital that Mr. Graves had been with the schools there but about two weeks before the holiday season and with Mrs. Graves and their child had been away for the Christmas closing period.

Graves is said to be about 21 years old and his wife appears to be some younger, Mr. Davis said. Their home was at Nevada.

Strychnine Tablets Fatal

BRIGHAM, Utah, Jan. 2.—(P)—Elaine Rasmussen, three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Rasmussen, a widow, died New Year's eve after swallowing several tablets containing strychnine.

Officers said the tablets were taken from the purse of the child's nurse, who used them as treatment for a heart ailment.

Plane Crashes Into House

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 2.—(P)—A DC-3 air liner carrying a vaudeville troupe crashed into a house as it neared the fog-bound Nashville airport early Wednesday night and a number of its occupants were injured.

The plane was enroute from Richmond, Va., to Nashville with John Calvert, "The Flying Magician," and 18 members of his show who were scheduled for a performance here tonight. It carried a crew of three.

The plane struck the five room residence of C. S. Sidler in a

Nashville suburb some distance from the airport. Sidler's mother-in-law, Mrs. Birdie Hill, and his four-year-old daughter, Janette, were injured.

Calvert suffered a broken leg. The plane was demolished. Parts of the craft and broken bits of props it was carrying were scattered over a corn field adjacent the house it hit.

Calvert, who was piloting the plane at the time of the crash, said he thought he was coming down on the airport but that his instruments apparently were not functioning properly. He added that visibility was "about nil."

At the hospital Calvert said he intended putting on his show here tomorrow night even if he had to do it on crutches.

Clifford Jones, Birmingham,

Ala., member of Calvert's troupe, suffered a broken leg and other injuries.
